

Make it personal

A stylish mix of designer pieces and bargain finds makes for an inviting, family friendly home.

Lounge act ▼

Instead of a formal lounge, this couple opted for a comfy sofa to create a warm, welcoming look. We found this plush one at The Country Trader.

Table for two ▲

Relax in style with this three-piece rattan furniture set from EziBuy. The table and two chairs are available in caramel (pictured) or off-white for $349.95.

Shine a light ▶

A striking pendant light provides a stylish contrast to a sleek white kitchen and this Jackson ceiling pendant made from rattan fits the bill perfectly. It's available from Freedom for $149.

BUDGET BUY

◀ We'll always have Paris

Bring a touch of Gallic chic to your home with this Gates of Paris cushion, $39.95 from Rapee.

Mercury rising ▲

A collection of pretty pillar holders makes for a dazzling feature. Check out these Mercury glass candle holders from PartyLite which have an antiqued silvery-finish for a charming old-world look.

Homemade ▶

Danielle and Alan's home has a traditional, colonial-style look that's well suited to timber pieces such as the Barton bedroom suite from Forty Winks. Skilfully crafted from Australian stringybark, it features intricate detailing and an elegant design that's a must-have for a classic bedroom.
